

CHILD AND FAMILY SERVICES OF WESTERN MANITOBA

2010 Annual Conference

Everyone's talking; is anyone listening??

Communicating positively with parents

featuring nationally acclaimed Canadian speaker and author of Parenting Today Productions Inc., Vancouver, B.C.

Kathy Lynn

Communicating effectively with parents to influence and motivate change can be the most difficult task many professionals face. Lynn's interactive workshop will teach you:

- How to talk to parents so they will hear you
- The roles professionals and parents play in communicating
- Ways to explain parenting skills to effect change
- Specific examples of parenting techniques

When Thursday, April 22, 2010, 8:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m.

Where Victoria Inn, Imperial Ballroom
3550 Victoria Avenue W., Brandon, MB.

Who should attend Social work professionals, therapists, counselors, educators, clinicians, foster parents, health care professionals, psychologists, psychiatrists

Cost $150 each (participants are responsible for their own lunch)
Discount of $20 each if registering four or more attendees

Mark your calendar now, then watch your mail for detailed brochures and registration forms in February 2010. Information will also be available in January on our website at www.cfswestern.mb.ca